

Their Lies

{Dm} x2

{A G F E} {Dm}

Dm High above the war planes sound,
droppin' bombs towards the ground.
A G F E Dm Back home no protestin' is found.
Dm This ain't like the hippy '60s
when thousands of people filled the streets,
A G F E Dm even though death is still complete.
G A Dm Maybe because we know we won't be drafted.
G A F G Maybe because we are too desensitized.
G A Dm Maybe because we believe their lies.

Dm Vietnam felt our bombs
for decades. We know that's wrong.
A G F E Dm The war on terror's gone on way too long.
Dm It's still caught in overdrive.
Millions of people have lost their lives,
A G F E Dm feedin' hate 'til no one will survive.
G A Dm Maybe because we can't forgive.
G A F G Maybe because we don't empathize.
G A Dm Maybe because we believe their lies.

Jam through verse

Dm Peace on Earth is a pipe dream
if people are still made to scream.
A G F E Dm The viscous circle's mean to everything.
Dm It's up to every one of us
to do what we can to bust it
A G F E Dm and give the other side something to trust in.
G A Dm Maybe because it's the right thing to do.
G A F G Maybe because it's at least worth a try.
G A Dm Maybe because too many have died.
