

Candlelight Shadows ©2003 Garrett Clevenger

D7 A ying and a yang. A feeling that's phat.
Mix 'em together with a this and a that.
G F Put 'em in the oven and open a bottle of D7 wine.

D7 Imbibe with a friend who's found some time to talk about lovin' with an open mind.
G F Silk is softer but leather won't weather as D7 fast.
A C But try to take it slow 'cause you know it oughta
D7 last.

D7 After a glass and another as well,
your head gets bigger as your thoughts do swell.
G F Next thing you know your feelings are rear-D7 ranged.

D7 Strangers may come, but lovers will go
and get a little closer as the feelings flow
G F faster than the next bottle of
D7 wine.
A C There's nothing that compares when you got it all
D7 intertwined.

F C F D7 Ooohh, ooohh, a little more.
C G C D7 Ooohh, ooohh, a little more.
F G C A Ooohh, ooohh, a little more.
A Bb C D7 Ooohh, ooohh, a little more.

D7 Parted lips. The tip of the tongue.
Everything's better when the dinin's begun
G F as candlelight shadows flicker across the D7 floor.

D7 Adore her charms, a piece of art.
Romance to the rhythm of your pounding heart.
G F There's only one way to insure you im-
D7 prove:
A C Practice makes perfect. So get on with the D7 groove.
A C Practice makes perfect. So get on with the
